In "Beyond My Control", Friday illustrates how and why the face of sexual fantasy has become more imaginative than ever before. She collects the sexual fantasies of dozens of women, and for the first time men, and teaches us to proudly own the creativity of our sexual imagination and indulge in the power of our sexual visions. "Beyond My Control" captures the sexual pulse of a people living in ...

Beyond-My-Control You may have noticed that my blog title, Beyond-My-Control, now contains dashes between the words. I'd love to tell you that the dashes were intentional on my part. That like the dashes on a tombstone between birth and death dates, they represent the life I have lived and the lessons I have learned along the way.

Beyond My Control — Mr Honner

Beyond My Control is a wonderful book. Quick and to the point, without any fluff, author Stuart Ross McCallum describes the uncertain hell of living for over twenty years with temporal lobe epilepsy. He talks about the early, confusing warning signs, the escalating symptoms and full-blown emergence of TLE and the risky surgery he eventually faced.
